Your financial aid is based on your completion of the FAFSA each academic year in addition to meeting all of the eligibility and application requirements for each aid year AND semester.

AS A FINANCIAL AID RECIPIENT, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO:
- Have your eligibility for financial aid determined fairly and consistently based on all federal and state regulations and Madison College policies.
- Be considered for any financial aid programs that you qualify for, based on funding availability.
- Request assistance if you have questions or don’t understand any information that is provided to you.
- Receive information about how your financial aid eligibility was determined, types of aid and relevant regulations, policies, and procedures.
- Receive notification of your financial aid award and when any adjustments are made.
- Expect that your financial records, your parents’ financial records, and your award information be kept confidential in accordance with the Federal Education Right to Privacy Act.
- Obtain information about your student loan debt burden including repayment options available.

AS A FINANCIAL AID RECIPIENT, YOU HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY TO:
- Apply for financial aid through the FAFSA each academic year that you wish to receive aid.
- Provide complete and accurate information in order for your financial aid to be correctly determined.
- Be officially admitted into a financial aid eligible program.
- Register in courses by the Date of Record for each semester. Please note that courses must fulfill outstanding graduation requirements for your current program of study.
- Monitor your myMadisonCollege Student Center and student email regularly.
- Read, understand and keep copies of all information and/or forms that are requested from and submitted to the Financial Aid Office and other agencies before the applicable deadlines.
- Inform the Financial Aid Office of any other aid (e.g., scholarships, state grants, etc.) not listed on your award.
- Use aid offered for educational related expenses as defined in your cost of attendance.
- Understand and maintain the requirements of Satisfactory Academic Progress including:
  - Achieving a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher; and
  - Completing at least 67% of the cumulative credits attempted.
- Report any change in your status (e.g., name, address, etc.) to Madison College in your myMadisonCollege Student Center and your loan servicer (if applicable).
- If you are a Stafford loan borrower:
  - Complete Entrance Counseling and a Master Promissory Note before you receive your first loan;
  - Complete Exit Counseling when you graduate or drop below half-time; and
  - Repay any loan you receive.
